CTNR Thesis Advisory Committee (TAC) Programme

From now on, the CTNR provides the framework for an educational programme for doctoral candidates of CTNR members. Doctoral researchers get the possibility to be supervised by a Thesis Advisory Committee (TAC). The TAC aims to provide guidance for both the doctoral candidate and their supervisors, in order for them to reach a successful end of the project. Please announce the TAC programme within your working group.

CTNR Medical Scientist Programme

The CTNR Neuro Medical Scientist Programme includes the financial support of positions for (non-physician) medical scientists/doctoral candidates with a focus on neurosciences. The financial support is used to give young scientists the opportunity to apply for third-party funds ("Anschubfinanzierung") or to complete the doctorate ("Überbrückungsfinanzierung").

The first position will soon be advertised internally.
